

Tuesday, 11 June | Turku City Theatre

17.15	Registration opens
18.00-20.00	Welcome reception

Wednesday, 12 June | Logomo

7.30	Registration opens
8.30-9.15	Opening ceremony (Logomo hall)
9.15-9.45	Keynote lecture Anna Stavdal: Continuity of care in times of continuous change (Logomo hall)
9.45-10.30	Coffee, exhibition, posters
	Logomo hall	Teatro	Gallery	Logi 1	Logi 2	Move	Kino	Goto 31	Goto 32	Goto 33	Goto 30
Parallel sessions 10.30-12.00	S1. Sustainability in general practice: a national innovation project to curb medical overuse	S2. A path to expertise in general practice – what, how and why?	WS1. Prioritising the psychosocial in pediatrics	WS3. Patients with persistent physical symptoms – moving from perplexity to heightened sense of competence for both patients and doctors	WS2. Medical Humanities in clinical practice and education – short lectures and interactive activities	WS4. Defining obesity – changing standards and the impact on general practice	O1. Cancer	O2. Mental health	O3. GP work	O4. Health promotion
12.00-13.00	Lunch, exhibition, posters (group 1)
13.00-13.30	Keynote lecture Hálf dán Petursson: Preventing overdiagnosis – balancing risks and uncertainties (Logomo hall)
13.30-13.45	SJPHC Award (Logomo hall)
Parallel sessions 14.00-15.30	S3. Writing an article more easily accepted and understanding the peer review process – meet the editors of Scandinavian Journal of Primary Health Care	S4. Diagnosing mental disorders in general practice	WS5. Guidelines for cardiovascular disease prevention: Is perfect the enemy of good?	WS6. From quality measures to quality improvement in Nordic General Practice. Real-life examples of quality improvement interventions in Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden	WS7. GP & Planetary Health Game	WS8. Dr. Robot will talk to you now – a workshop on machine-based care	WS9. Wanted: Clinical supervisors! Sustainable student education in a general practice workforce crisis	WS10. Consultation skills in the Nordic countries – exploring differences, similarities and possibilities in a practical role play based training workshop	O5. Pain	O6. Education I	O7. Obesity
15.30-16.00	Coffee, exhibition, posters (group 1)
Parallel sessions 16.00-17.30	S6. Point-of-care ultrasound in general practice across Europe – educational aspects	WS11. Sexual- and relationship problems in consultations – what can GPs do?	WS12. Put yourself in their shoes: how cultivating empathy can help building trusting relationships in healthcare	WS13. Patient-centered solutions to improve the management of patients with multimorbidity in general practice	WS14. Digital consultations in the Nordic Countries – what we know, what we don't know and how to fill the knowledge gaps	WS15. How to improve leadership skills in young general practitioners?	WS16. Classification as a tool to improve practice	O8. Cardiovascular disease	O9. Pregnancy	O10. Multidisciplinary primary care

Thursday, 13 June | Logomo

7.45	Registration opens
8.30-9.00	Keynote lecture Minna Johansson: Prioritizing those who needs us the most when facing a tsunami of recommendations, quality metrics and financial incentives (Logomo hall)
9.00-9.30	Keynote lecture Tuire Saloranta: Person-centred care – a key for effectivity? (Logomo hall)
9.30-10.00	Coffee, exhibition, posters
	Logomo hall	Teatro	Teatro gallery	Logi 1	Logi 2	Move	Kino	Goto 31	Goto 32	Goto 33	Goto 30
Parallel sessions 10.00-11.30	S7. Diabetes and prediabetes at a glance	S8. Patient empowering approaches for active aging	WS17. How to assess and enhance reflection in medical education. Presentation of a new assessment tool.	WS18. General Practice go Green – tools for GP's to reduce carbon footprint	WS19. Creating the Family Medicine Care Team of the Future	WS20. Involving GPs and their patients in clinical research: The pivotal role of practice based research networks	S9. Analysing consultations in general practice: Tools for qualitative research	WS21. Part time, rotation, locum – how do different working conditions affect general practice?	O11. Children	O12. Mental depression	O13. Point of care ultrasound
11.30-12.30	Lunch, exhibition, posters (group 2)
12.30-13.00	Keynote lecture Ruth Kalda: Putting the person at the center: dialogue, context, and best evidence in person-centered medicine (Logomo hall)
Parallel sessions 13.15-14.45	S10. Towards better understanding and management of patients with multimorbidity – a core priority in general practice (part I)	S11. Mental health interventions in general practice: lessons learned and the way forward.	S5. The creation, investigation, and implementation of the SOFIA-project – an intervention based in Danish general practice introducing extended consultations targeting patients with severe mental illness.	WS22. General practice and sustainability in the Nordic countries	WS23. Continuity of care within general practice	WS24. Supporting young general practitioners' well-being and job satisfaction. A NYGP workshop	WS25. Neither too early nor too late – merging evidence and clinical experience in cancer diagnosis in general practice	O14. Health services	O17. Digital interventions	O16. Education II	O15. Children mental health
14.45-15.15	Coffee, exhibition, posters (group 2)
Parallel sessions 15.15-16.30	S10. Towards better understanding and management of patients with multimorbidity – a core priority in general practice (part II)	S12. Nordic countries challenged by other European universities in providing primary care education.	O18. Diabetes	O19. Out of hours work	O20. Infections I	O21. Work and health	O23. Aging	O22. Genitourinary disorders
	Congress dinner at 19.00 and Summer evening party at 20.00 (Ruissalo Boatyard)

Friday, 14 June | Logomo

7.45	Registration opens
8.30-9.00	Keynote lecture Juho Saari: Hidden hierarchies and the quality of life (Logomo hall)
9.00-9.15	Friederich's Nordic prize (Logomo hall)
	Logomo hall	Teatro	Gallery	Logi 1	Logi 2	Move	Kino	Goto 31	Goto 32	Goto 33	Goto 30
Parallel sessions 9.30-11.00	S13. Caring for the planet while caring for patients	S14. Approaches to suicide prevention in primary care	WS26. Time Needed to Treat (TNT) who wants to work 27 hours a day?	WS27. What is the role of GPs in palliative care?	WS28. Gatekeeping and private health insurance: Challenges and possible solutions for societies and health care services	WS29. Positive Health, how to apply this person-centred care concept into GP practice? A variety of international experiences	O24. Continuity of care	WS31. How to improve the quality in qualitative research in family medicine and general practice?	O25. Health inequalities	WS30. How to tackle wicked problems in our specialist education?	O26. Infections II
11.00-11.30	Coffee, exhibition, posters
11.30-12.00	Keynote lecture Mogens Vestergaard: Securing sustainable services: future challenges and core values in general practice (Logomo hall)
12.00-12.20	Summary lecture Magnus Isacson: The core of family medicine (Logomo hall)
12.20-12.45	Closing ceremony (Logomo hall)
12.45-13.30	Take-away lunch										